CREDENTIALS

Credentials are issued to working media only - working press, radio, television, photography and scouting - and must be visible at all times for access to the press area. Requests must be made via email to Jim Heath at james.heath@hamptonu.edu or by calling (757) 727-5811. Requests for single-game credentials should be made no later than 48 hours prior to the day of the game.

INTERVIEWS

All interviews phone or otherwise, must be arranged through the Office of Sports Information. Please arrange all interviews at least 24 hours in advance. Interviews will either be conducted prior to or after practice; no interviews will be done during practice. Telephone interviews with student-athletes will be scheduled as the student-athletes' schedules allow.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

Post-game interview requests should be arranged through the Office of Sports Information within five minutes of the end of the game. At the conclusion of the contest, players and coaches will be made available for interviews after a 10-minute "cooling off" period. Players and coaches will be brought into the interview area in the HU Convocation Center after this period; players will be available for 20 minutes. The locker room and training areas are closed to the media.

PARKING

Parking at the HU Convocation Center is free and open to everyone. However, parking spaces can be blocked off if they are requested in advance.

PRE-GAME NOTES

Media may obtain game-day information, including notes and statistics for both teams, on press row or in the media room of the Hampton University Convocation Center. Media members who wish to receive a copy of the game-day notes prior to arriving at the Convocation Center should contact Jim Heath.

PHOTOGRAPHY

All photographers and camera operators must wear a visible credential issued by the Hampton University Office of Sports Information. Photographers and television camera operators approved to work on the sideline must secure a photo pass. These individuals must work along the baseline of the game floor; the players' bench area is clearly marked and restricted to official team personnel. Anyone wearing a photo pass who does not have the appropriate equipment in his/her possession will be asked to leave the sideline area. Photographer positions are at the complete discretion of the basketball game officials and the Office of Sports Information at all times. Failure to comply will result in expulsion from the arena.

GAME FOOTAGE

All games are video-taped on Sony super high 8 and Beta. All interview and game footage is available to interested television stations and networks. Contact the Office of Sports Information or Kevin Ricks, Media Productions Director, at (757) 727-5433, for further details.

BROADCASTING

All visiting radio stations wishing to broadcast a contest at the Hampton University Convocation Center must contact the Office of Sports Information at least two weeks prior to the game.

PRACTICE SCHEDULES

Throughout the season, various Pirate practices will be open to the media. Coach Ed Joyner Jr. will meet with interested media 15-30 minutes prior to or immediately following practice. A member of the Sports Information staff will assist in gathering requested players for interviews on a daily basis.

In his first 11 seasons as head men's basketball coach at Hampton University, Edward "Buck" Joyner Jr. has guided the Pirates to national prominence on more than one occasion - and that's not even counting the magical run Hampton made in March 2015 en route to an improbable MEAC championship, an NCAA Tournament win, and national notoriety.

Fighting the injury bug throughout the 2019-20 season, the Pirates once again get on a run in the post-season advancing to their first Big South Conference championship game as they finished 15-19. Hampton entered the tournament as the fifth-seed and knocked off fourth-seeded Longwood and top-seeded Radford to advance to the title game. Senior Jermaine Marrow and sophomore Ben Stanley earned first team All-Big South and All-Big South Tournament honors.

The Pirates first season of Big South Conference action in 2018-19 saw them catch fire down the stretch winning eight of their last 10 games and make the deepest run a Hampton University NCAA Division I team has made in a post-season tournament going to the semifinals of the CollegeInsider.com Tournament. Hampton finished with an 18-17 record and was lead by junior Jermaine Marrow who finished among the top ten nationally in scoring averaging over 24 points per game. Marrow was a first-team All-Big South selection and finished 13 points from 2,000 in his career.

The 2017-18 season saw the team battle through early adversity as Joyner's father, Edward "Big Buck" Joyner Sr., passed away prior to a home game on December 6. The Pirates rebounded in MEAC play finishing with a 19-16 record overall and a 12-4 mark in the conference. Hampton ended in a three-way tie for the regular season crown and earned its first bid to the National Invitation Tournament facing Notre Dame in the opening round. Sophomore Jermaine Marrow was named First Team All-MEAC and break the 1,000-career point mark.

The Pirates advanced to the finals of the MEAC Tournament where Charles Wilson-Fisher and Malique Trent-Street were named to the All-Tournament squad.

In 2016-17, the Pirates rode a youth movement to an 11-5 MEAC record to tie for third place and a 14-17 overall mark. Hampton closed the regular season winning eight of its last 10 games to vault into a share of third place with a starting lineup of four sophomores and a freshman. Jermaine Marrow earned All-Rookie team honors averaging 15.6 points, 3.2 assists and 3.0 rebounds per game and was MEAC Rookie of the Week five times along with Player of the Week once.

The 2015-16 season saw Joyner guide the Pirates to a 21-11 overall record - their second 20-win season under his tutelage - and win the MEAC regular season title with a mark of 13-3 before defending the conference tournament championship. The Pirates again earned the MEAC's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament, earning a No. 16 seed in the Midwest Region and taking on Virginia. Hampton won its first MEAC regular-season crown since the 2001-02 season.

Along the way, guards Quinton Chievous and Reginald

Johnson, Jr. were First Team All-MEAC honorees. Both players ranked top four in the conference in scoring, and Chievous - one of only a handful of players nationally to average a double-double - led the MEAC in overall rebounding, offensive rebounds, and defensive rebounds.

Johnson was also named the MEAC Tournament's Most Outstanding Player, averaging 19.3 points and 8.3 assists per contest in those three games. He tied a MEAC Tournament record with 13 assists in the quarterfinals against Morgan

State.

Chievous was also named to the MEAC's All-Tournament Team.

With a 61-48 win at American on Nov. 17, 2015, Joyner picked up his 100th career win as a head coach. His 120 wins are the most among Div. I coaches in program history, and Joyner is third overall in terms of career wins, 20 wins shy of Malcolm Avery (140 wins, 1987-95).

Despite going 8-8 in MEAC play in 2014-15 and winding up with a No. 6 seed, the Pirates went on to win four games in six days in the conference tournament, taking their second MEAC Tournament crown under Joyner with an 82-61 win over Delaware State in the title game.

In claiming the MEAC crown, the Pirates upset the No. 3, No. 2, and No. 5 seeds.

The Pirates then wound up in the NCAA First Four in Dayton, Ohio to take on Manhattan. Hampton won that game 74-64 for the second NCAA Tournament win for the program at the Div. I level - and the first since the 2001 upset over Iowa State - before taking on No. 1 seed Kentucky in the second round.

2020-21 Hampton Men's Basketball

The win gave the Pirates an unprecedented level of national exposure - exposure helped by a press conference soundbite from Joyner that went viral and made Hampton tournament darlings leading up to its second-round contest against Kentucky.

Overall, Hampton has made four postseason appearances under Joyner; in addition to NCAA appearances the past two seasons and in 2011, the Pirates competed in the College Basketball Insider (CBI) Tournament in 2014.

Joyner became the program's all-time winningest Div. I coach on Feb. 7, 2015 with a 64-61 win over Maryland Eastern Shore, surpassing Steve Merfeld (90 wins) on the program's all-time wins list.

Along the way, Deron Powers was named the MEAC Tournament Most Outstanding Player - after earning Third Team All-MEAC honors - and Reginald Johnson was named to the All-Tournament Team.

With the help of then associate head coach Akeem Miskdeen, Joyner instilled a new philosophy leading into the 2013-14 season. Faced with a young but talented team, Joyner is looking to instill a philosophy of discipline, toughness, and passion (DTP) in the Pirates.

In discipline - getting players to do things the right way every time on and off the court - Joyner quotes Aristotle: "We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence is not just an act; it's a habit." Nothing great, according to Joyner, is ever accomplished without discipline.

By giving the Pirates toughness, Joyner and his staff hope they will be able to withstand great strain without tearing or breaking. The Pirates will have to be tough, fighting through adversity - physical, mental, and emotional - on and off the court.

By instilling passion, Joyner and his staff want the Pirates to embrace being student-athletes, in every sense of the term. If the players truly love what they do, that passion will make being disciplined and tough easier.

Through DTP, Joyner wants a team that plays hard, unselfishly, with confidence, and with passion - believing that builds the foundation of a successful basketball program. The Pirates, through DTP, should take the simple game of basketball and play it aggressively, while simultaneously reaching their full potential on and off the court and never losing sight of their goals.

Joyner also hopes DTP will be a good tool for teaching important life lessons.

The Pirates won 18 games in 2013-14, finishing second in the MEAC with a mark of 13-3. Despite falling in the quarterfinals to Coppin State, Hampton made its second postseason appearance under Joyner, competing at Penn State in the first round of the CBI Tournament.

The Pirates ended the regular season on a seven-game winning streak, a stretch that included season sweeps over rivals Howard and Norfolk State. As a head coach, Joyner is 9-1 overall against Howard and 6-6 against Norfolk State.

Along the way, senior forward Du'Vaughn Maxwell was named MEAC Defensive Player of the Year, leading the conference with 3.2 blocked shots per contest and ranking third in the MEAC in rebounding with 7.5 a game. Maxwell was also a First Team All-MEAC selection.

In Joyner's fourth season with the Pirates, Hampton went 14-17 overall in 2012-13. However, the Pirates went 11-5 in conference play, finishing third in the MEAC after winning a head-to-head tiebreaker over Savannah State. Hampton closed out the regular season with nine wins in its last 12 games, as a young squad began to mesh and show its potential.

Leading that charge was freshman point guard Deron Powers, who was named the MEAC Rookie of the Year after leading the Pirates in both scoring and assists last season. Powers was second in the MEAC in free throw percentage and fourth in assists. Powers was also named a Mid-Major Freshman All-American by CollegeInsider.com.

The Pirates struggled to a 12-21 record in 2011-12, though Hampton did advance to the semifinals of the MEAC Tournament in trying to defend their 2010-11 crown. Along the way, the Pirates upset No. 1 seed Savannah State in the quarterfinal round 59-46. That win was also the 50th in Joyner's young coaching career.

Darrion Pellow, who was a senior in 2011-12, led the team and the MEAC in scoring, earning First Team All-MEAC honors after averaging 18.3 points per game. Pellow was also named VaSID First Team All-State.

Joyner led the Pirates to the 2011 MEAC Tournament championship in his second season, guiding Hampton to a 24-9 record - marking the first time the Pirates won 20 games since the 2001-02 season. The Pirates were the No. 2 seed in the MEAC Tournament, defeating Morgan State 60-55 in the championship game to win the tournament and win the automatic NCAA bid for the first time since 2006. Hampton earned a No. 16 seed, facing top-seeded Duke in the first round.

Joyner saw two of his athletes earn All-MEAC honors, as Pellow was named First Team All-MEAC after finishing the season second in the conference in scoring and junior guard Kwame Morgan was named Second Team All-MEAC after a breakout season. Pellow, the MEAC Tournament's Most Outstanding Player, was also named VaSID Second Team All-State, BASN HBCU Second Team All-American and NABC All-District 15, while Morgan was named a Lou Henson All-American and NABC All-District 15.

Joyner was also named BASN HBCU Coach of the Year for his efforts.

The Pirates overcame offseason tragedy and went 14-18 in 2009-10, Joyner's first season as head coach, finishing tied for fifth in the MEAC with an 8-8 record. He led the Pirates to the MEAC Tournament semifinals, beating archrival Norfolk State in the quarterfinals 73-70. Despite struggling to find consistency for much of the season, Hampton won six straight games to close out the regular season and open the MEAC Tournament, before falling to top seed Morgan State 74-67 in the semifinals.

Senior guard Vincent Simpson earned Second Team All-MEAC honors for the second straight year under Joyner, leading the team with 14.1 points per game. Both Simpson and senior forward Michael Freeman eclipsed the 1,000 career point mark in 2009-10.

As an assistant coach, he helped develop such players as Simpson, first team all-conference guard Rashad West, the MEAC's leading scorer in 2006, and Michael Freeman, the 2006 MEAC Rookie of the Year. As academic coordinator, Joyner guided the men's basketball program to the highest team GPA in 10 years.

Joyner came to Hampton after 11 years as the assistant head coach at Johnson C. Smith University in Charlotte, N.C. He also served as the lead assistant coach on the women's basketball team in the last five years of his tenure at Johnson C. Smith. Joyner also served as assistant to the Dean of Students over judiciary affairs.

During his tenure with the men's basketball program at Johnson C. Smith, Joyner was instrumental in developing 13 first team all-conference performers and seven All-Americans - five of whom are currently playing professional basketball. The Golden Bulls made seven appearances in the NCAA Division II Tournament, reaching the Elite Eight in 2001 after capturing the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) championship.

Joyner helped the Johnson C. Smith women reach the CIAA title game in three of his five seasons, making one NCAA Tournament appearance. In all, Joyner coached six all-conference players.

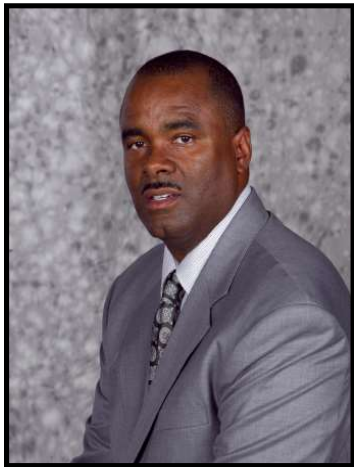

Joyner played his collegiate ball at Johnson C. Smith, earning letters all four seasons he played. He helped guide the Golden Bulls to three division titles, two trips to the CIAA championship game and three appearances in the NCAA Division II Tournament. Joyner was named Defensive Player of the Year twice, and he finished his career among the top-ten assist leaders in Johnson C. Smith history.

A native of Winston-Salem N.C., Joyner is the son of the late Edward Joyner Sr., former head basketball coach at St. Paul's College, and the nephew of Steve Joyner, the head basketball coach and athletic director at Johnson C. Smith.

Joyner received his Master's degree in sports administration from Hampton University in May 2016. He is married to the former Aerian Miller and they have three children: E.J., Andrew, and Layla.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Darryl Sharp • Associate Head Coach
12th Season • Bloomsburg (Pa.) '90

Darryl Sharp is in his 12th season with the Hampton University men's basketball program under head coach Edward Joyner Jr., and his 11th serving as associate head coach. He is responsible mostly for recruiting, opponent scouting, and managing the team's academics.

In the latest NCAA Academic Progress Report (APR), released back in June 2020, the Pirates had a 964 multi-year score which has gone up 20 points during his tenure. That four-year score concluded with the 2018-19 season.

Sharp spent two years with the Iowa State basketball program, serving as assistant coach in his second year. Sharp joined the Iowa State men's basketball staff in June 2003, handling director of basketball operations duties. In his first season with the Cyclones, Sharp coordinated recruiting, academic progress and various administrative duties. During Sharp's tenure, the Cyclones went 39-25 and qualified for postseason play both seasons.

ISU went 20-13, advanced to the 2004 NIT semifinals in New York City and tallied a 17-1 record at home in his first season in Ames. He also helped mentor Big 12 Freshman of the Year Curtis Stinson. In the 2004-05 season they advanced to the NCAA Tournament and recorded a win over Minnesota.

A native of Kennett Square, Penn., Sharp was in charge of recruiting at Norfolk State for one season before coming to Ames. He arranged all recruiting visits for the staff and developing prospect lists. He also handled all film exchange and assisted with individual improvement drills in the off-season.

Before his stint at NSU, Sharp worked with Hall of Fame coach Denny Crum at the University of Louisville as an administrative assistant for two seasons (1999-2001). The Cardinals made the NCAA Tournament in 2000, tallying a 19-12 record while finishing second in the Conference USA American division. Sharp was instrumental in recruiting All-American Reece Gaines, who ended his career at Louisville as the third-best scorer in C-USA history.

Prior to working in the college ranks, Sharp was an assistant coach at Washburn High School in Minneapolis, Minn., (1997-98) and an assistant coach for Team Minnesota/Team Pulley (1997-98), the top AAU basketball program in Minnesota. Khalid El-Amin, Troy Bell and Adam Boone are just a few of the star players Sharp coached while assisting Howard Pulley.

A 1990 graduate of Bloomsburg (Pa.) University with a degree in economics, Sharp spent time as a broker for Robert W. Baird and U.S. Bank before getting into coaching. He has two children, Stephon and Saige.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Matthew Hamilton • Assistant Coach Sixth Season • Appalachian State '14

Matthew Hamilton is entering his sixth season with the Hampton University men's basketball program in 2020-21, serving as an assistant coach for the fourth year after holding the role of Director of Basketball Operations in 2015-16. He is primarily responsible for recruiting, player development, scouting reports, travel, and day-to-day operations within the program.

As the Director of Basketball Operations, Hamilton was responsible for arranging travel, meals, scouting reports, assisting the coaching staff with day-to-day operations, and serving as an on-campus host for recruits.

Hamilton's coaching career began when he was 16 years old, when he served as an assistant coach at Marvin Ridge High School, before he went on to serve as a student manager for three seasons at Appalachian State University. While there, Hamilton helped with player development, scouting reports, film editing, practice setup, and on-campus recruiting visits.

He then became an assistant coach at Lees-McRae College, a Div. II school located in Banner Elk, N.C. There, he served as the head JV coach, where he was responsible for running practice and in-game coaching. As an assistant coach with the varsity team, Hamilton was responsible for player development, recruiting, scheduling, academics, and scouting.

While Hamilton was at Lees-McRae, the school set a program record for wins in a season. He coached two All-Conference players during his tenure, including Jaquise Moore - who led all of Div. II in steals with 3.3 per contest.

Hamilton graduated from Appalachian State with a degree in physical education.

He is a member of Rising Coaches Elite and the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC).

Hamilton, a native of Waxhaw, N.C., enjoys the outdoors, playing golf, and hanging with friends. He earned his Master's degree in sports administration from Hampton in May 2017.

Keith Coutreyer • Assistant Coach Third Season • Columbia Union '92

A long-time Mid-Atlantic region coach and former Hampton men's basketball assistant, Keith Coutreyer returns to the Pirates sidelines this season. He rejoins the Pirates after serving on the staff at Howard University for the last 10 years.

Coutreyer was an assistant in 2008-09 along with then assistant coach Edward "Buck" Joyner. When Joyner took over in 2009-10, Coutreyer served as an assistant on his first staff.

Prior to Hampton he was the head coach at Laurel High School in Prince Georges County, Md. for eight years. In his last three years at Laurel, the team posted a 52-20 record, going a school-record 22-3 overall and 17-1 in league play. His final team won a school record 22 games winning the regular-season league title, capturing the county championship and taking the school's first regional title since 1980.

Coutreyer also has held special education teacher certification, which he earned at Trinity College in Washington, D.C. For 14 years, Coutreyer has patrolled the sidelines and the classroom, shaping youth for the future. In his tenure as a coach, Coutreyer has sent over 25 players to play at the NCAA level, be it Division I, II or III. "Wins will be celebrated and then forgotten," Coutreyer said, "but the lives that you touch will last a lifetime."

He graduated from Columbia Union College in 1992 with a bachelor's degree in journalism. At Columbia Union, now known as Washington Adventist University, Coutreyer played on the basketball team at the NCAA Division II level. He earned his Master's in Education Leadership at Howard in May 2018.

Regina Bartholomeo • Basketball Secretary
25th Year

Regina Bartholomeo is the Administrative Assistant for both the Hampton University men's and women's basketball programs, and her day-to-day duties are to assist in arranging team travel, budgeting, compliance and recruiting.

A 1989 graduate of Canyon Springs High School in Moreno Valley, Calif., Bartholomeo enlisted in the United States Air Force and was stationed at Langley Air Force Base in Hampton, Va. for four years. During her service, Bartholomeo spent seven months in Saudi Arabia, participating in the Desert Shield/Desert Storm campaign.

Bartholomeo joined the Pirate family in May 1995, and has since played an essential role in the success of Hampton University basketball. She lists her most memorable basketball moments as her participation in the NCAA tournament - both with the women at the University of Connecticut and the men when they beat Iowa State in Boise, Idaho in 2001.

Bartholomeo has lived in Hampton for the past 20-plus years. She is the proud mother of Dominic IV, Desean and Gianna.

Veronica Johnson • Athletic Performance
10th Year • Barton College '09

Veronica Renee Morgan is in her tenth year with the Hampton University Department of Athletics, and coming into her sixth season as the Director of Athletic Performance. She is primarily responsible for developing workout routines and training regimens for student-athletes.

Prior to her current position, Johnson was a strength and conditioning coach with Hampton.

A graduate of Barton College, where she received her degree in Fitness Management, Johnson played basketball at Barton and was a team captain her senior year. Prior to Barton, Johnson was a point guard for Hagerstown JUCO for two years - where was a team captain and team MVP.

She currently holds the JUCO record for 3-pointers in a game, hitting nine of 10.

Johnson holds NASM (national Academy of Sports Medicine) certification. After graduating from Barton, she was the top female personal trainer for three years at Bally Total Fitness.

In her spare time, Johnson likes to play basketball.

Morgan and her husband Ra'shad are the proud parents of 5-year-old Mahki Morgan. She just graduated in May of 2019 from Hampton University with her master's in Sports Administration.

Jim Heath • Basketball SID
5th year • Christopher Newport '92

Jim Heath is in his third year as the Director of Sports Information at Hampton University. He joined the staff in mid-November of 2015 after serving for 16 years as the Sports Information Director at The Apprentice School in Newport News.

Under Heath's direction, the Office of Sports Information is responsible for the maintenance of the official athletics website, HamptonPirates.com, as well as the creation and editing of such athletics-related publications as media guides, gameday programs (for football), and record books. In addition, all press conferences and interviews with student-athletes, coaches, and staff members are coordinated through the Office of Sports Information.

Heath also has worked for 15 years as a Sports Information Consultant for the United States Collegiate Athletic Association, now located in Norfolk. In his role with the USCAA, he has helped with the development of the website for the association along with serving as statistician for several national championship tournaments. Heath has helped introduce the use of live stats to national tournaments, working with tournaments for publicity locally and nationally.

He has also served as the USCAA Football Sports Information Director for the last nine years where he coordinated the coaches rankings and helped garner national recognition for USCAA football teams.

Heath has always served as a first-call for member schools with statistics and Sports Information needs.

At The Apprentice School, Heath served as the Sports Information Director from 2000-2016. While there, Heath was the media contact for six sports. He played a key role in the establishment of their first website, instituting live statistics at home events and help start their social media presence on Facebook and Twitter.

A 1992 graduate of Christopher Newport University, Heath was a student Sports Information Director throughout his collegiate days. Upon graduation with an English degree, he worked for two years as the Graduate Assistant Sports Information Director at Old Dominion University. At ODU, he worked with nine sports including the field hockey team that did not lose a game in his two years.

After ODU, he returned to CNU serving as its first Assistant Sports Information Director for two years before going full-time with The Daily Press in Newport News, Va. in 1995 where he worked until March of 2001.

He is an active member of College Sports Information Directors of America and Virginia Sports Information Directors where he was elected for a second two-year term as President of VaSID in June of 2017. Heath has served as the Sports Information Director for the Atlantic Central Football Conference (2004-2010), the National Collegiate Wrestling Association (2002-2007) and as the Media Director for the Virginia Duals wrestling tournament (2004-present). He was named the recipient of the Bob Moskowitz Media Award by the Peninsula Sports Club in June of 2008.

NCAA TOURNAMENT BOX SCORES

Hampton 58, Iowa State 57
West Regional - First Round
March 15, 2001
Boise, Idaho (Boise State Pavilion)

Travis Williams flipped in a 4-footer with 6.9 seconds remaining as 15th-seeded Hampton stunned No. 2 Iowa State 58-57 in the NCAA West Region. Williams took a feed from Marseilles Brown and moved the Pirates (25-6) into tournament history as the fourth 15-seed to beat a No. 2 seed since the tournament expanded to 64 teams in 1985.

Iowa State's Jamaal Tinsley took the ball down court, but missed the layup with 1.2 seconds to go, setting off a midcourt frenzy as the Pirates, their band, cheerleaders and fans swarmed the floor in celebration.

In one of the most memorable moments in tournament history, David Johnson carried coach Steve Merfeld halfway around the court as Merfeld furiously pumped his fists.

The Cyclones (25-6), who came within one game of the Final Four the previous year, left the court in shock.

Iowa State was outscored 14-2 in the final eight minutes, getting nothing after Martin Rancik's bucket gave the Cyclones a 57-48 lead with 7:01 remaining. The Pirates trailed by as many as 11 in the second half, but pulled to 57-54 with 2:53 left on a basket by Isaac Jefferson, then forced a turnover at the other end.

It was 57-56 with 1:44 to go when Brown split the lane for a layup, capping a fast break that started when Williams blocked a shot by Rancik.

The MEAC champion Pirates were making their first NCAA tournament appearance.

Georgetown 76, Hampton 57 West Regional - Second Round March 17, 2001 Boise, Idaho (Boise State Pavilion)

Kevin Braswell scored 15 points and Nat Burton added 13 as Georgetown beat Hampton 76-57 on Saturday, putting the No. 10 Hoyas (25-7) into the NCAA Tournament's round of 16 for the first time since 1996.

Fifteenth-seeded Hampton (25-7) wrecked office pools and became a sentimental favorite after shocking No. 2 Iowa State in the first round.

It took longer than they'd hoped, but the Hoyas used their superior size and deeper bench to bury overachieving Hampton with a 26-6 run over the last 10 minutes of the first half.

Tarvis Williams, who hit the game-winner against Iowa State, scored 16 and blocked eight shots to lead the Pirates, but he was smothered by Georgetown's centers - the 7-foot Ruben Boumtje and 6-foot-11 Wesley Wilson. LaSean Howard scored 14 and Marseilles Brown added 12 for the Pirates.

Georgetown allowed just one field goal over the last 10:53 of the first half, extending a 24-20 lead with a 14-0 run that included 3-pointers by Braswell and Lee Scruggs. Nat Burton got free underneath for two easy layups in the last minute and Georgetown led 42-22 at halftime.

Connecticut 78, Hampton 67
East Regional - First Round
March 15, 2002
Washington, D.C. (Verizon Center)

UConn managed to beat Hampton 78-67, despite a late scare from the East Region's No. 15 seed.

Up only four with three minutes to play, the Huskies were close to becoming the second No. 2 seed to fall to the Pirates in two years (Iowa State lost in the first round to Hampton the year before). But the Big East champions staged a 7-0 run to close out the game.

UConn received big games from Caron Butler (21 points, nine rebounds) and Emeka Okafor (12 points, 15 rebounds, five blocks). The Huskies shot 51 percent from the floor, while holding the Pirates to just over 35 percent shooting.

The Pirates hung around by forcing 15 turnovers and only committing eight themselves. Tommy Adams led all Hampton scorers with 23 points, and Isaac Jefferson pulled down a team-high 10 rebounds in the loss.

2020-21 Hampton Men's Basketball

Monmouth 71, Hampton 49 Opening Round Game March 14, 2006 Dayton, Ohio (University of Dayton Arena)

Playing their fifth game in seven days appeared to finally catch up with the Pirates; they allowed Monmouth to jump out to an early lead and eventually cruise to a 71-49 win in the opening-round game of the 2006 NCAA Tournament. Hampton finished the season 16-16, while the No. 16 Hawks (19-14) moved on to face top-seeded Villanova on Friday.

Hampton won four games in four days to win their third Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference title, but it was evident early on the Pirates were fatigued and it cost them.

With the score tied at 14 with 8:15 to play in the first half, Monmouth mounted a 3-point attack to blow the game open. Chris Kenny opened the barrage with three straight baskets from behind the arc, and Dejan Delic and Mike Shipman added their own 3-pointers to give the Hawks a 35-20 halftime lead.

Led by Kenny's five 3-pointers, Monmouth finished the half 7-of-13 from distance, while the Pirates went just 7-for-30 from the floor.

Hampton cut the Hawks' lead to 12 on a trey from senior Jeff Granger (10 points) with 18:44 left to play, but that was as close as the Pirates would get. Marques Alston and Delic again responded with shots from deep and the Monmouth lead was soon back up to 20 points.

From there, the Northeast Conference champions took advantage of the weary Pirates by repeatedly beating them with backdoor cuts and controlling the Pirates' offense with a matchup zone.

Kenny finished with a game-high 20 points, while Delic and Shipman added 14 and 11, respectively.

MEAC Tournament MVP Rashad West was the Pirates' leading scorer with 14 points. Jaz Cowan added 12 and a team-high nine rebounds.

West Region - Second Round
March 18, 2011
Charlotte, N.C. (Time Warner Cable Arena)

The Hampton University men's basketball team saw its stellar 2010-11 season come to an end, as the Pirates fell to Duke 87-45 in the second round of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament at Time Warner Cable Arena.

The Pirates, who were seeded No. 16 in the West Region, had their five-game winning streak snapped by top-seeded Duke and ended the season 24-9. Duke handed the Pirates their most lopsided loss of the season, as Hampton tied its season low in points scored and set a season high in points allowed.

Junior guard Darrion Pellow and senior forward Charles Funches each led Hampton with nine points, while senior guard Brandon Tunnell and junior guard Mike Tuitt each poured in six points.

Funches also pulled down a team-high seven rebounds, while Tuitt had all four of the Pirates' assists.

The Pirates shot 34.5 percent (19-for-55) from the floor, while making four of 14 3-pointers and only making seven trips to the free throw line. Despite being out-rebounded, Hampton held an 11-8 edge in second-chance points.

The Blue Devils shot 53.3 percent (32-for-60) from the floor, hitting nine of 19 3-pointers and going 14-for-16 from the free throw line. Duke held a 38-29 rebounding edge over the Pirates, and Duke scored 27 points off 17 Hampton turnovers.

Kyrie Irving, seeing his first action since December, led Duke with 14 points off the bench, while Dawkins added 13 points. Mason Plumlee poured in 12 points and Kyle Singler added 11 points.

Miles Plumlee pulled down a team-high 13 rebounds, 11 of which came in the first half.

Hampton 74, Manhattan 64 Midwest Region - First Four March 17, 2015 Dayton, Ohio (UD Arena)

The momentum from winning the MEAC Tournament - four games in six days - carried over for the Hampton University men's basketball team at UD Arena, as the Pirates withstood a push from Manhattan to take a 74-64 win in the First Four.

The Pirates (17-17), having picked up their first NCAA Tournament win since 2001's historic upset of Iowa State, advanced to the second round in the Midwest Region - where overall No. 1 seed Kentucky awaited in Louisville, Ky.

Junior guard Reginald Johnson, fresh off his All-Tournament performance last week, led the Pirates with 15 points. So did guard Quinton Chievious, who battled his way to 15 points and a team-high 13 rebounds despite being banged up for much of the night.

Junior guard Brian Darden chipped in 13 points.

The Pirates, fresh off their fifth MEAC Tournament championship, shot 49.1 percent (26-for-53) from the floor and hit three of seven 3-pointers (42.9 percent). Hampton dished out assists on 20 of its 26 field goals.

Manhattan out-rebounded the Pirates 41-37, in part because the Jaspers shot just 37.1 percent (23-for-62) from the floor and went just 6-for-25 (24 percent) from behind the arc.

Shane Richards led the MAAC champion Jaspers (19-14) with 17 points.

Kentucky 79, Hampton 56
Midwest Region - Second Round
March 19, 2015
Louisville, Ky. (KFC Yum! Center)

Given the run the Hampton University men's basketball team's been on over the course of a week and a half -- five games over the course of eight days and all the notoriety that came with it, one might wonder when the magic would run out.

Enter No. 1 overall seed Kentucky, which defeated the Pirates 79-56 in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Guard Quinton Chievous registered his seventh double-double of the season - and his second straight - scoring a team-high 22 points and grabbing 10 rebounds. Chievous, who went 7-for-14 from the floor, was the only Hampton player in double figures.

The Pirates (17-18) shot 28.8 percent (17-for-59) from the floor and hit four of 16 3-pointers.

Kentucky (35-0) shot 45.9 percent (28-for-61) from the floor and used its size advantage to hold a 51-31 edge on the glass. The Wildcats also held a 44-20 advantage in points in the paint and an 18-2 edge in second-chance points.

Karl-Anthony Towns led four Wildcats in double figures with 22 points and 11 rebounds.
